Our Home "Riv- erview,"

Is for sale. Mr. Elliott and family are to vacate it May 1st, and it is larger than we can occupy to advantage. It is by far the best home in this city and it is hard to duplicate (everything considered) in the United States for the money it costs.
The site is superb. It embraces ten full city lots 4 by 8 rods. The house and barn are every way right.

It is worthy the attention of any one seeking a first class home. As we before said, we will sell it and will give possession May 1st.

We have an architect working on plans for a smaller but equally good house, to be built for ourselves directly opposite "Riverview," and if we can sell this we shall have it built to occupy by July 15th.

This is an unusually attractive opportunity. Come and see us.

Yours very truly,

Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

"The Home" has been a source of much pleasure to us and that it has not been of much profit in way of money, cuts no figure. But owing to the fact that we are driven in our other lines of work and that we are to lose the editorial assistance of Mr. Elliott, we have concluded to abandon the publication of the MANY KILLED.

Deputy Sheriffs Shoot Down Seven Strikers at Mount Pleasant.

Many Others Thought to be Fatally Injured by the Volley.

The Tragedy Brought on by An Attack Made on the Officers.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., April 2.—[Special]—Several hundred strikers attacked the Morewood Coke Works this forenoon.

A number of deputy sheriffs were on guard, who warned off the strikers. The latter replied by firing in the direction of deputies who thereupon fired two volleys into the mob.

Seven of the rioters were killed and many others wounded. The strikers then fled in different directions.

Another account places the number of killed at eleven and wounded at twenty-seven.

LITTLE RHODY VOTES.

Result of the Battle at the Polls in the Union's Smallest State.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 2.—There was a large vote at the state election Wednesday, and the result cannot be definitely determined for some hours.

Yet the indications are that there has been no election of any officer upon the general list by popular vote, although both Davis and Ladd for governor have made gains which nearly balance each other in the state so far as heard from. The general assembly, with the four cities and several towns still to hear from, stands: Republicans, 48; democrats, 23; no election for 15 seats.
The republicans need 7 more votes to obtain the requisite majority on the joint ballot by which the governor and general officers are elected after a failure to elect by the people.

World's Fair Commissioners.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The national board of commissioners of the World's Columbian exposition met in this city Wednesday. The board of reference and control reported, recommending, among other things, that President Palmer's salary be $9,000; Vice Chairman McKenzie's salary $8,000, and Secretary Dickinson's $5,000. A resolution was adopted unanimously complimenting Mrs. Potter Palmer, president of the board of lady managers, and the financial committee acting with her, for their efforts in the interest of the exposition.

Husband and Son Both Dead.

BATH, N. Y., April 2.—State Assemblyman Brundage lies dead in his home. Wednesday his 24-year-old son died and the widow and mother, who is in South Carolina, telegraphed that an attempt to return home to attend the double funeral would be fatal to her.

Masked Burglars Kill a Woman.

LEWISBURG, Pa., April 2.—Two masked robbers entered the house of Michael Strominger Tuesday night and, binding and gagging Michael and his wife, secured $2,000 in cash. When the robbers came to untie Mrs. Strom-inger she was dead from suffocation.

Will Keep His Place.

COLDWATER, Mich., April 2.—Wednesday the celebrated Nellie Griffin state public-school case came to an end by the board of control refusing to accept Superintendent Kirkwood's resignation. While their report censures him mildly they believe the best interests of the school will be subserved by retaining him, finding that, while he committed one grave error, his thorough and practical work demonstrates his worth and fitness for the place.

Big Strike Inaugurated.

MILWAUKEE, April 2.—April was ushered in here with labor troubles that were somewhat unexpected. A lockout in the building trades occurred Wednesday morning in this city, in which about 1,300 men are involved.
The trades interested are the stonemasons and bricklayers and the hodcarriers. The trouble is not a matter of how many hours shall constitute a day's work but a question of wages.

Funeral of John Plankinton.

MILWAUKEE, April 2.—In spite of all efforts to make the funeral of John Plankinton a quiet and unostentatious affair, it was one of the most largely attended funerals ever known in Milwaukee. The services were held in the Calvary Presbyterian church, and the sermon was preached by Rev. A. A.
Kiehl.

Lawrence Barrett's Will.

BOSTON, April 2.—The will of Lawrence Barrett was filed Wednesday.
Deceased bequeathed to his wife all of his furniture, pictures, clothes, plate, china, watches and jewelry, wines and household stores, and all the rest of his property is left in trust to his three daughters.

Suicide of a Judge.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 2.—A special from West Bend, Wis., says Judge Paul A. Weil committed suicide with a revolver Wednesday. He had been a sufferer from la grippe. The deceased was about 60 years of age.

Hostler and Horses Burned.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 2.—A large barn on Vermont street burned Wednesday morning. There were thirty valuable horses in the building and many were badly burned. Four had to be shot to relieve their sufferings. After the flames were extinguished the charred body of John Maloney, a hostler, was found.

Overtaken by Disaster.

GREYTON, Nicaragua, April 12.— Arner Miller's party was wrecked Wednesday on Bonaco reef. The gun-boat Petrel has gone to the rescue. All of the party are reported safe.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia have issued an order that all bills, notices, and advertisements posted in public places must first be submitted to the inspection of the captain of the metropolitan police, his decision to be final. The object of this order is to suppress immoral and indecent posters. The crusade against this nuisance is spreading.

ILLINOIS.

Business Transacted in Both Branches of the Legislature.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 2.—In the house the belief that the corporations are retarding legislation resulted in the rejection of the joint resolutions for an adjournment from Thursday to Wednesday afternoon. The vote on the resolution stood 90 to 34, and on motion of Mr. Paddock a conference committee was appointed. The union cigar label bill was ordered to a third reading. A bill was introduced to prevent the manufacture and importation of adulterated cigarettes. The bill provides that the state board of health shall analyze sample cigarettes once every three months.
The committee on corporations reported favorably the bill to fix the maximum rates for commercial telegraph messages within the state at fifteen cents for ten words.

In the senate joint resolution for adjournment from Friday to next Wednesday was amended to read from Thursday to next Wednesday and adopted.
Senator Campbell offered a joint resolution submitting to the people at the next general election the question of repealing the amendment to the constitution adopted in 1888 prohibiting the contracting for convict labor. It went over under the rules. Senator Noonan introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for an industrial home for the blind in Chicago.
After discussion Senator Sheels' bill for an Illinois reformatory at Pontiac was sent to its third reading. Its passage is doubtful. The Copping bill repealing the Merritt conspiracy law was postponed to Thursday, the 9th.

MICHIGAN.

The Miner Election Bill Passes the House by a Party Vote.

LANSING, Mich., April 2.—The house passed the miner election bill recommended by the committee of the whole yesterday by a vote of 52 to 26. A concurrent resolution was adopted that when the house adjourns today it be until Tuesday, April 7, at 7:15 p. m. The senate passed an anti-railroad pass bill, which not only includes members of the legislature but state and judicial officers as well. The joint taxation committee will report in favor of the California system of taxing mortgages and a return to the county system of collection of taxes. The Fildew bill for the repeal of the Baker conspiracy law passed the house. The senate passed the Share bill, which does away with the specific taxation of iron and copper mines and requires that they shall be taxed in the same manner as other property. It is claimed that under the new system the Calumet & Hecla Company alone will pay $31-000 more in taxes than it did last year.

A NOTED IOWAN GONE.

Death of Ex-Congressman J. B. Grinnell —Something of His Career.

GRINNELL, Ia., April 2.—J. B. Grinnell the founder and foremost citizen of this city, died Tuesday night at 10:15.
The city is in mourning and business is practically suspended. Arrangements are in progress for the funeral, which will be one of the most imposing demonstrations of public sorrow ever witnessed in the state.
Joseph Bushell Grinnell was born in New Haven, December 22, 1821. He was left an orphan at the age of 10 years. He graduated from the Oquema institute in 1843 and from Auburn theological seminary in 1847. He entered the Congregational ministry and preached seven years in Union Village, N. Y., Washington and New York city. He preached the first anti-slavery sermon ever heard in Washington.
He came to Iowa in 1848 and founded the town of Grinnell and established the Congregational church here. The town was named by him January 24, 1850. He was a member of the state senate from 1856 to 1860, and was by Lincoln's appointment a special mail agent from 1861 to 1863. In 1863 he was elected governor by the republicans and served two terms. He was active in the building of railroads and in the advancement of free schools and the cause of temperance. Mr. Grinnell was married February 8, 1852, to Miss Julia A. Chapin, of Springfield, Mass., and they have two daughters, Mary C. and Carrie H. It was to Mr.
Grinnell, according to tradition, that Horace Greeley gave the famous bit of advice: "Young man, go west and grow up with the country."

MERCILESS WAR WAGED BY REBELS.

Blood Flowed in Torrents at the Engagements at Iquique and Tarapaca; —Between 3,000 and 4,000 People Killed.

FOUGHT LIKE FIENDS.

NEW YORK, April 2.—A special from Santiago dated February 27 says: During the last ten days President Balma-ceda's government has suffered most terrible blows. The insurgents are gaining ground every day, and have now complete control of the northern provinces—a great source of strength to them and a great injury to the government. The first battle of last week was fought on the pampa of Dolores on the 10th inst. The government forces numbered 3,000 and the revolutionists had 5,000 men. The revolutionists were defeated, but it is impossible to get any details of the engagement. A large number of soldiers have been sent into the northern provinces to drive out the revolutionists. By far the most memorable days thus far are the 24th, 25th and 26th. On those days blood flowed in torrents at Iquique and Tarapaca. On the 24th inst. the revolutionists began a second bombardment of Iquique. The attack was so sudden that the government had no time to prepare for the murderous fire which was opened on the town. While the government forces were well trained their work did little good, as all their efforts were more than offset by the concerted action of the land and naval forces of the revolutionists. The encampments of government forces were completely destroyed. In the city almost every house which was left standing after the first bombardment some weeks ago was destroyed utterly. Late in the afternoon a pitched battle occurred between the land forces, in which some 200 were killed. When night drew on hostilities were suspended, but on the following day the fighting was resumed with greater vigor than ever. Three pitched battles were fought during the day.
Late in the afternoon the fighting ceased, for there were few government soldiers left who were able to fight. Col. Robles escaped with the fragments of his army to the mountains, pursued by the rebels. The government forces were terribly beaten and at night on the 25th there was left in Iquique a mass of ruins and piles of dead bodies. The town was totally ruined and 1,500 people were killed. Just before the bombardment began the consuls of all governments represented at Iquique protested against the brutality of the revolutionists in commencing a bombardment without giving at least the women and children an opportunity of escaping to a place of safety.

But by far the bloodiest and most merciless battle occurred on the 26th inst. at Tarapaca. The revolutionists attacked the city and the government forces by sea and by land.
The fighting began early in the morning and continued for several hours, destroying 200 people. When the firing began the inhabitants made a wild rush for the heights back of the town, but they were stopped by the relentless fire from the land forces. Bal-maceda's troops fought like tigers and were met by the rebels with equal ferocity. The scenes were frightful.
Men fought hand to hand, fighting themselves. They pursued the defenseless ones into the houses, where many were brutally cut down on both sides.
Consecrated ground was not exempt from the ravages of the rebels, for some severe fighting occurred in the churches, where hundreds of women and children were praying for the safety of their husbands and brothers. Soon after the bombardment began several large buildings were discovered to be on fire. Hundreds of people who had taken refuge in the houses were driven from them by the flames, only to be shot down when they sought new places of refuge. The cries and heartrending scenes between mothers and their children seemed to have no effect on the soldiers except to stimulate them to new efforts, to more devilish actions. The sight of young mothers trying to protect their little ones added to their thirst for blood. It is said that personal rancor entered largely into the battle. Many old fathers were settled forever at the bombardment of Tarapaca. The town is a total wreck.
Every prominent building has been levelled to the ground. The number of dead and wounded cannot, of course, be accurately calculated, but it greatly exceeds 2,000. Many bodies are being taken from buildings and it is believed that many women and children perished in the flames.

At Gana another battle has been fought. Col. Huarec, the commander of the government troops, was badly wounded and his troops were defeated.
About 250 were killed in this battle.

Why He Shot Taubee.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The defendant in the Kincaid trial was put upon the stand Wednesday. He testified as to the poor state of his health for some years before the shooting; to the repeated insults heaped upon him and assaults made upon him by Taubee, and to the threats made against his life by the deceased. The altercation which had shortly preceded the shooting was graphically described, the witness testifying that Taubee had called him a little coward and monkey, and told him to arm himself. He had fired the shot because he believed it was Taubee's life or his.

Entitled to Free Delivery.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., April 2.—The Huntington post office will apply for the free delivery service, its receipts for the last quarter having exceeded $10,000.

Death of James Ludington.

MILWAUKEE, April 2.—James Ludington, a resident of this city since 1843, died Wednesday in his room in the Plantin house. Death was caused by the grip. Mr. Ludington was born in Carmel, Putnam county, N.
Y., in 1828, came west at the age of 15 and settled in Milwaukee. He was successful and soon became prominent through northern Wisconsin, his large interests were especially centered in Michigan, the city of Ludington, Mich., being named after him. His estate will reach $2,000, 000.

WINANS HOLDS A CLUB

He Threatens to Work With The Republicans.

HIS PLAN NOT ENDORSED.

Unless the Assembly Consents to Put Rock in a Democratic District, However, He Will Go Into the Camp of the Enemy.

If Mr. Winans shows sufficient strength to carry his plan of appointment through, the republican assemblymen will support him. In this event it is understood that Winans will support the plans of the republicans for the legislative apportionment. This was the statement made at the close of the party caucuses in Madison last night.

There is more than a suspicion, however, that this arrangement will never be carried out. The belief is expressed that Mr. Winans by threatening to support the republican legislative apportionment may frighten Boss Wall into setting part of Rock county, including Janesville, off into the second district with Dane, Dodge and Columbia counties.

The democrats held a caucus last night in the rooms of the state agricultural society and the republicans in the basement of the capitol. Mr. Winans walked into the republican caucus thinking it was the democratic one. There was apoplexy as he entered. He excused himself for getting into the wrong place but said he would be glad to be with them under other circumstances. Mr. Winans had been conferred with, however, and the statement was made that he was sure of enough strength to smash the democratic caucus state with republican aid if the democrats failed to make amendments to him.

Mr. Winans got into the democratic caucus quite late, and argued at length for fair treatment, saying that Rock county's 3,600 democratic votes ought not to be left out in the cold, but he got little satisfaction. The sentiment seemed to be to rush through the machine plan, and while there were plenty who were not satisfied, they had not the independence to stand out against the ring.

REV. MRS. BROWN TO SPEAK.

The Racine Woman-Suffragists to Visit Janesville.

Rev. Olympia Brown, of Racine, and Mrs. S. M. C. Perkins, of Ohio, will discuss "The Condition and Needs of Our Country and the Rights and Duties of Citizenship," at All Saints church on Saturday evening of this week. The meeting will begin at 7:30. It is free and all invited. A collection will be taken.

The ladies expect to hold public meetings throughout the state, beginning in this city. Besides Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Perkins the speakers will be Mrs. Ellen A. Rose, of Brodhead; Mrs. E. A. Charlton, of Brodhead; Rev. Ella Bartlett and others. Most of these speakers are well known as they belong in Wisconsin. Mrs. Perkins comes from Ohio. We expect the following press notice:

Mrs. Perkins is one of the finest lady speakers we have ever had the pleasure of listening to, and her addresses were not the old stereotyped lectures we have all been used to hearing for years, but were new and exceedingly interesting.

MAY HUNT WITH DOGS.

The Assembly Refuses to Accept Mr. Williams' Game-Law Clause.

Before the game bill went to a third reading in the assembly, Mr. Williams moved to amend it so as to prohibit the spring shooting of ducks. This amendment was lost. He then offered another amendment intended to prevent the use of dogs in hunting game dogs for period of three years. The amendment was adopted, but it has no effect. It adds the no-dog clause to the first section and, as thus amended, the bill merely prohibits the use of dogs during the close season, when there is legally no hunting, with or without dogs. Still another amendment proposed by Mr. Williams, allowing persons to shoot game on their own property at any season of the year, was lost. Mr. Babcock offered an amendment to make the shooting season open August 15 instead of September 1, but this was also lost.

F. J. BAILEY CAUGHT BIG FISH.

With a Common Bass Rod he Landed a 19-Pound Tarpon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bailey have returned home from their winter outing to southern Florida. They spent several weeks in Charlotte Bay, and had splendid luck fishing. Among Mr. Bailey's catches was a 19-pound tarpon, the king game fish of the world. This great fish was caught with a bass rod and line. Mr. Bailey and his family enjoyed their vacation greatly and came home well satisfied that Florida is a good place to spend a few weeks, but thinking more than ever of southern Wisconsin for a home.

ODD FELLOWS WILL CELEBRATE.

DON'T CARE TO FIGHT

No Janesville Men Anxious to Join the Army.

DO THEY FEAR ITALIANS?

Captain Moses Harris Opened a Recruiting Office in the Lower City, but the Blue and Red Pictures Seem to Offer no Attraction.

Janesville does not seem to be very patriotic. Not one has signed his name to Captain Harris' enlistment roll to-day.

The captain sent in the Myers Home reading the Chicago Herald. No gold bespangled nor gilt tinselled uniform was visible, and nothing except a small red, white and blue rosette that he wore in his button hole served to show that the gentleman was an officer in the United States army.

"I will hardly take a very large army out of Janesville with me," he explained to a Gazette reporter this afternoon. "The policy of the government is to establish recruiting stations in all the cities in the state occasionally move to awaken interest in the army than for the real purpose of enlisting men. Of course we are always glad to get good timber for the service, and wish to give every man who comes to a chance to enlist. We have not been very well advertised in Janesville, and therefore did not expect to enlist many men."

"How many men have enlisted so far?" "Well, I haven't taken anybody yet, and for the reason that I stated I do not expect to. Janesville seems to be a good town for soldiers, however. Major M. A. Newman is from Janesville. I believe? I know him well, having met him at various conventions of the officers of the national guard. This is General Doe's home too, is it not?"

"Janesville is a pretty town," remarked the officer as he folded his paper. "I am much impressed with its beauty. I was here last July and attended the Patterson-Wheeler wedding. Wheeler was the son of Major J. H. Wheeler, whom I knew well and who raised a company of Janesville veterans for service in the Fifth Wisconsin regiment."

GOOD MUSIC ASSURED.

The Entertainment Tomorrow Afternoon Will be Very Enjoyable.

The musical tomorrow evening at the Congregational chapel is likely to be thoroughly enjoyable. The programme will be as follows:

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE SITES.

Location of the Fifth and First Ward Buildings.

The location of the proposed new school building appears to be misunderstood by a number of voters who are using this means to oppose the project.

The school board took pains to inform the people that the new building for the Fifth ward would be placed on the site of the old one now used in that ward; that the Pleasant street building would be erected on Lots 97, 98, 99 and 100 in Mitchell's third addition to Janesville. These are the vacant lots east of the residence of B. Spencer on the North side of Pleasant street. The location of the school house site in the Second ward has not been definitely settled by the board, but in all probability it will be in the neighborhood of Cornelia and Walker streets.

IN THE LAST SLEEP.

Theodore Kendall.

Another one of Janesville's early and respected citizens passed from among us this morning. Theodore Kendall entered into rest at 10 o'clock this forenoon at his home on Madison street. Mr. Kendall was born at Springfield, Mass., on February 15, 1801. His early boyhood days were spent at Springfield, but in his early manhood he removed with his parents to Craftsbury, Vermont, remaining a resident of Vermont until the fall of 1833, when he came to Janesville to make a home in Janesville. During their first winters Mr. and Mrs. Kendall occupied a rude house located near the foot of Main street. In the summer of 1839 Mr. Kendall built there a more permanent dwelling on the corner of Main and East Milwaukee street where now stands the brick block built by the late M. C. Smith. Mr. Kendall has since built quite a number of dwellings in this city.

In 1849 Mr. Kendall crossed the plains to California where he remained about a year and a half when he returned to his home in Janesville.

Mr. Kendall was a quiet, unobtrusive man; a kind and generous neighbor, a true and faithful friend, a good and worthy citizen, highly respected by all who knew him.

He leaves surviving him a wife to whom will be extended the kind sympathy of her neighbors and friends.

Mr. Kendall has always been an active and honorable member of the Masonic fraternity, for more than thirty years, and was a charter member of Western Star Lodge of this city. His funeral will be conducted by his masonic brothers on Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. J. P. Sears.

Mrs. J. P. Sears, aged 85 years, died at Denver, Colorado, April 1, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Sears was a sister of Mrs. Volney Atwood. She formerly resided here, but for the past twenty-five years had been a resident of Denver, where her remains will be taken.

SHORT LOCAL NOTES.

In Honor of Miss Mae Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barber, of Rockford, gave a party to a number of young people Tuesday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Mae Stevens, of this city. Says the Rockford Register: "The floral decorations were unusually elaborate, the dining room being made especially attractive with abundant rare callings from the conservatory. Progressive amusements were the feature of the evening."

Not Frightened by One Maid.

Thomas J. Miners was to have been married to an Iowa girl not very long ago, but she flew on the day of the wedding. Thomas was without hope, however. Tuesday evening he and Miss Gertrude Olson came to this city from Rockford and were joined in hymeneal bonds. The bride is a daughter of M. Olson, of Rockford, and has been clerk in a Rockford store.

New Second Ward Houses.

Frank Dano will erect three new dwelling houses on South Hickory street between the corner of Main and East Milwaukee street. Mr. Murphy intends putting up two or three new dwellings on his North Hickory street property, and John Doran will build one on Glen La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

Will Study Portland's Boom.

Engineer Bedford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bedford, and agent of the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul road at Janesville, Oregon, to investigate the great boom of that city.

The Road Does Its Duty.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company have a force of men at work laying new sidewalks in front of the company's land on North street and also on St. Mary's avenue.

Strange Strawberry Boxes.

Strawberries are in the Janesville market at thirty-five cents a "fall quart." The bottoms of the boxes are said to be nearer the bottom than the top of the box.

Rain and Cooler.

Forecast for Janesville and vicinity: Rain and cooler.

The temperature as observed by E. B. Heintzel during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:

At 7 A. M. 39; Maximum 44; Minimum 32.

Defenses Can't be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
